Hi friends,

Just wanted to remind you about this book talk in a week and a half. I've been reading DJ's book, and there is a wealth of information that helps us to make sense of the situation we are in. The chapter on Prop 63 – and the diversion of funds into mental health and wellness programs – as opposed to providing services and support to those suffering from severe mental illness is quite enlightening. Will open your eyes to what we might advocate for.

Please RSVP – we are up to 40 attendees. Room capacity is 100. Share with your colleagues.

Kerry
